LeveUp

The Builder Lead provides an unfair advantage by plugging you into our ecosystem

You aren't just getting advice; you're getting a co-pilot. Pitch your idea to LevelUp's elite Builders who originally selected these themes.

If your pitch is selected, that Builder joins your team as your Team Lead for the rest of the event, unlocking exclusive, direct access to LevelUp's inner circle.

The first 13 days test your ability to ideate and prototype under pressure

Round 1: The Ideathon

June 25–27

Action: Pitch your raw concept on your selected theme directly to the Builders.

The Stakes: Only 2 teams per theme are shortlisted to advance.

Phase 1: The Build Sprint

June 28–July 7

Action: A 10-day intense cooldown phase. Build your working prototype under the strict guidance of your new Builder Lead, the Core Tech Team, and Pro Mentors.

The final sprints transform your prototype into into an investable business

Round 2: Project Presentation
| July 8–9

Action: Demo your working prototype to the Tech Team and Mentors.

The Stakes: The ultimate bottleneck. Only 1 team per theme survives.

Phase 2: The Business Sprint
| July 10–14

Action: 5 days to transform your great prototype into a viable, scalable business model, guided by real startup founders.

Final Round: Pitch Arena
| July 15

Action: The ultimate test. Pitch your complete business model and functioning product directly to real investors for actionable feedback and potential investment.
